

Max-Min Worksheet 2

Problem. A piece of sheet metal is rectangular, 5 ft wide and 8 ft long. Congruent squares are to be cut from its four corners. The resulting piece of metal is to be folded and welded to form an open-topped box. How should this be done to get a box of largest possible volume?